

ABOUT SOFTPATH

Softpath System, LLC is an award winning Technology Consulting, Services and Staffing firm. Founded in 1999, Softpath focuses on Fortune 2000 firms and government agencies. We were recognized as the 2014 Investment in Informatica Partner of the Year for North America primarily for our work in Master Data Management. Our partnerships with technology giants like Informatica, IBM and Oracle plus awards in the areas of innovative management skills and rapid growth are a testament to our commitment to excellence.

We are a proud Women and Minority owned business certified with honors for our quality work. We recently won the 2016 Fast 100 Asian American Business Award by the USPAACC for being one of the fastest growing companies.

OUR SERVICES

Master Data Management

What sets us apart is our Center of Excellence around MDM. We have one of the largest experienced and certified teams in the country with over 80 professionals. They are all connected allowing instant answers to any question to keep client projects moving efficiently. We've worked on 75+ MDM engagements over the past three years alone, logging over 250,000 hours. Our MDM work spans 20+ different industries. We can provide professional services for the top MDM solutions including Informatica, IBM, Oracle and SAP.

Enterprise Information Management

We help organizations integrate, clean, master and analyze one of their most valuable assets; their information, in a more agile, reliable and cost effective way to create value. We can leverage tools like Data Integration, Data Quality, Master Data Management, Business Intelligence, Metadata Management, Data Security & Privacy, Cloud and Big Data solutions to help you succeed.

Our experienced teams build long term, trusted relationships and bring a high level of innovation, integrity and value to our clients. We pride ourselves on being easy to work with and our numerous engagement models will truly fit your needs. We offer a range of services including business needs assessment, software selection & purchase, installation, implementation, customization, upgrades, administration and support for wherever your company is along your EIM journey.

Professional Staffing Services

Softpath has a distinguished presence as a go-to source for skilled IT and Non IT related talent. Softpath strives to address the evolving needs of customers with workforce and technology solutions nationwide.

We have created successful long term relationships with some of the largest organizations including State and Federal Governments. We help businesses focus on their core strengths while we help address their short term and long term workforce goals. Softpath offers the most reliable and flexible staffing solutions to address the changing needs of our customers.
